Doctoral Colloquium

Luxury: a story of Heritage, Innovations and Disruption in the AI Era

April 3, 2025

What: The Doctoral Colloquium of the 2025 Monaco Symposium on Luxury aims to welcome a small group of selected doctoral students researching in areas related to this year's Symposium theme

"Luxury: a story of Heritage, Innovations and Disruption in the AI Era".

When: April 3, 2025.

Deadline for submission: November 30, 2024.

Who: Doctoral students (PhD & DBA) in fields related to the 2025 Monaco Symposium on Luxury.

Why: Provide an informal and academically rigorous forum for doctoral students to share their research with peers and distinguished faculty members, receive individual mentorship, and build their network. Selected applicants will also have access to the 2025 Monaco Symposium on Luxury.

How many: Ensure a 2:1 ratio of doctoral students per mentoring professor. Since this is a half-day program, only a limited number of students will be eligible.
